Dear Homemakers,

Fall is here and it's so nice to have a little break from the extreme heat. Hope everyone is excited about our first Bazaar. Please start bringing anything you want to donate minus baked goods to the Extension Office. If you haven't signed up to help on October 21 and want to, please see the President of your club and let her know. PLEASE pass the news of our Bazaar date and time.

We have a couple new members to start our year off. Bring a new member if you know anyone. Mail-box members count too. For ten dollars they will get a newsletter sent to their email monthly.

My phone doesn't come in clear. However you can text me with any questions. 502-604-1308

Enjoy Fall and gear up for the holidays!

KEHA WEEK, October 8—14, 2023

The Kentucky Extension Homemakers Association (KEHA) is celebrating KEHA Week across the Commonwealth. Established in 1932, the state organization's 11,229 members are dedicated to learning, leading, and serving. Educational programs highlight topics including heritage skills, nurturing families, food safety, nutrition, reducing waste, leadership, avoiding scams, civic engagement, and many more.

Volunteer service is a strong emphasis in KEHA. Statewide, members annually report more than 500,000 volunteer hours in support of Extension and community projects with a value that exceeds $13.4 million dollars to the Commonwealth.

Since 1977, KEHA has actively supported the University of Kentucky Ovarian Cancer Research Fund. Donations through KEHA surpassed the $1.62 million mark in 2023, and over the last 10 years, have averaged more than $40,000 annually.

KEHA is a volunteer organization that works to improve the quality of life for families and communities through leadership development, volunteer service, and education. The organization operates in partnership with the University of Kentucky Cooperative Extension Service. County Extension Agents for Family and Consumer Sciences work closely with KEHA members and clubs to provide educational programming and coordinate community activities.
